Remembrance Sunday

*"They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old,
Age shall not weary them nor the years condemn,
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We shall remember them"*

www.guiseleybaptistchurch.co.uk

Welcome to Guiseley Baptist Church!

If you are visiting us today, we give you a warm welcome and trust you will feel at home with us. If you'd like to know more about us and what we do, please help yourself to one of our leaflets, which can be found in the foyer.

Tea & coffee will be served at the end of our service.

Gill Thurgood will be preaching on this remembrance Sunday

Please do stay after the service today for a time of fellowship and join us for our shared lunch. .

PLEASE REMEMBER:

As an interim measure, but for the odd exception, we have moved back to one service on Sunday mornings at 10.30 from this day onwards.

One such exception is the morning of Sunday 17th December—the Children's Nativity will take place during a 9.30 service, and a more typical service will take place at 11.15.

Micky ~

Micky continues to make progress and is settled back at home. He is still in recovery and we ask that this be respected.

Micky is taking visitors for short periods of time, but please do phone first to find an agreeable time to visit.

Please also remember that Micky is on sick leave and we have a duty of care to protect him from any work related matters until he is fit enough to return to work. All pastoral and church related matters must be directed to the Leadership Team please.

Church Meeting ~ clarification

Kenny Brown

Kenny has been exploring a call to Ministry. This was presented to the Deacons who then put forward to the membership that the church support Kenny in this calling. This will voted upon in our January 2018 meeting.

Harvest Appeal ~

Last Sunday saw the launch of our somewhat belated harvest appeal. This year we are supporting Charitywater—a charity whose mission is to see that every single person on the planet has access to clean water.

Our attention was drawn to this cause through Amanda Connor, who was made aware of a young school carer who was carrying out fund raising activities to support this worthwhile charity.

For more information please speak to Amanda, or visit the Charitywater website: www.charitywateruk.org

To support and donate to this cause for our Harvest Appeal, please use the envelopes that are now available in the church entrance.

Bookshop in a Box ~

This morning Steve Allen will be showcasing a selection of books that are available to order from his 'Bookshop in a Box' which will be set up in the small room at the front of church.

Please do take time to have a look at his varied selection, including titles for both adults and children, along with a choice of Christmas cards.

The books will make excellent gifts this Christmas and are supplied by Cornerstone Christian bookshop in Skipton.

Youth Weekend Away ~

A difficult decision has been made to cancel the Youth Weekend Away at Herd Farm due to low numbers of interest and unrealistic cost.

Amelia will be putting forward plans of other engagement activities so watch this space.....

Table Tennis Club ~

Please be aware that the Friday evening Table Tennis Club is taking a break while Paul Woodrow is away having a well earned rest. The club will restart on the 1st December.
