This Sunday's Refugee Service

"I was a stranger and you invited me in ..." Matt 25:35

Today we welcome Ali from Sudan and Mo from Iraq, who will tell their stories of what it is like to be an asylum seeker.

Please give them the usual warm GBC welcome, ready to listen with compassionate hearts and open minds. Please remember that these two men will address us in English which is not their first language (their mother tongue for both being Arabic) and that their lives are tough!

"Whatever you do for the least of these, you do for me"
